We are finally up and running in our temporary location. Thank you all for your patience during this stressful time. Hope you enjoy this list!

THE ROCK ORCHARD-Paula Wall

This magical story will enchant you! I love to read about strong women that aren't afraid to shake things up, and this book fills the bill. (all branches)

NEVER HIT A JELLYFISH WITH A SPADE- Guy Browning

Sometimes we just need a good belly laugh, and this man's take on everyday life is a hoot! Do yourself a favor and pick up this little gem. Non-fiction 828.9202 Brow (MW, RM, DSL)

CELL- Stephen King

I was an avid King fan until the past several years, but I am pleased to say that Cell has everything I loved about the earlier King books. Good story, suspenseful, eerie. (all branches)

STRANGE BUT TRUE- John Searles

A young woman who lost her boyfriend on prom night in a horrible accident that left her disfigured, turns up on his family's doorstep pregnant and claiming that the father is her dead boyfriend. Grief, hope, love and healing, and an outcome that is totally unexpected. (RM)

THE INNOCENT-Harlan Coben

As usual Harlan delivers a first class thriller. The only drawback is keeping up with all the characters. (RM, MW)

ALL NIGHT LONG-Jayne Ann Krentz

Politics, murder and sex. What more could one want from a mystery? This is a good love story as well as a mystery. (all branches)

THE YEAR THE MUSIC CHANGED- Diane Thomas

I always enjoy a book that makes me use my imagination. This is a bittersweet story of a teen-age girl struggling to find her fit in the world. She starts a correspondence with a young man that very soon will be wildly famous- Elvis Presley. How they are both changed by their contact is heartwarming and uplifting. (all branches)

MUDDY BRANCH- Clyde Roy Pack

This is a true account of growing up in Eastern Kentucky. I found it fascinating-from knowing everyone in town, to the home remedies for every ailment imaginable.

(RM, MW, DSL) 976.9 Pack

MAGIC HOUR- Kristin Hannah

This book will break your heart. A tiny little girl escapes from the woods and it is evident that she has endured horrible abuse. The psychiatrist that takes her in teaches her to eat like a human instead of an animal, to talk, potty train, and, most of all to trust. (all branches)

FALSE IMPRESSIONS-Jeffrey Archer

An English noblewoman is murdered for a priceless Van Gogh painting, and it is a race to prevent the next murder and to unravel the whys and hows. (DSL, LJ, RM)

THE TIN BOX- Holly Kennedy

This is a book that will make you cry and one you won't soon forget. Tommy will inspire you to be half as compassionate, courageous and caring as he is. This is my favorite on the list. (RM, DSL, MW)

SYMPATHY BETWEEN HUMANS- Jodi Compton

Beverly brought this book to my attention and I am glad she did. This is a top-notch mystery with characters that have depth and dimension. Sarah, a policewoman with a husband in prison, is juggling several cases at once and putting her life at risk.

(RM, DSL, MW)

Enjoy, and have a safe and happy summer!
